

Congressman Pence released the following statement today regarding the passing of former White House press secretary Tony Snow:

"Tony Snow's passing is a national loss. His intellect, his decency and his professionalism set a high standard for conservatives in public service and journalism. America will miss his voice and I will miss a friend."